

Privacy Policy

Effective date: October 25, 2024.

Petersburg FBC values your online privacy and security. This privacy policy describes the type of information we collect and how we use it. Information is shared only within our ministry.

What information do we collect? Petersburg FBC only collects information you provide. This could include your contact information, such as your name, address, phone number, and email address. We may also collect payment information, such as credit/debit card numbers, the card's expiration date, and other billing information if you donate or buy materials from us online.

How do we use your information? Petersburg FBC uses your information to better connect with you and to connect you with others involved with our ministry. Payment information is used to process your donations or purchases.

Will we share your information with others? Our ministry will not share your personal information with outside organizations that are not closely affiliated with us, including any third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes. Our ministry may provide your information to third parties to process a transaction you have initiated with us. We and our Closely Affiliated Organizations use personal information for internal purposes and to connect with you and other individuals involved with us.

How do we protect your information? We are committed to protecting your personal and payment information. Our ministry has implemented security measures, including Internet encryption software, Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol, and firewalls to prevent information from being compromised. Payment information is accessible only by authorized individuals to process this information.

Links to other websites? Our website includes links to other websites. Please be aware that this privacy policy applies only to this website. The privacy measures taken by these websites can be found in each website's own privacy policy.

How do I opt out of further communications? If you would like to stop receiving communications from our ministry, you can do so by simply sending us an email with that request at petersburgfbcil@gmail.com or by texting STOP or CANCEL or UNSUBSCRIBE to any text communications. Your preferences will be updated and you will no longer receive messages from our ministry unless you opt in again.

How do I contact your ministry with any questions? We are happy to receive and respond to any questions you may have about this privacy policy. Feel free to send your questions to petersburgfbcil@gmail.com.
